WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

Mainly dry weather is expected over the next 7 days with only a slight chance of light rain being possible across northern mountains during the middle of this week.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The marine layer is expected to deepen a bit overnight with a better chance of low clouds and fog spreading several miles inland. Slightly cooler on Monday, then a bit warmer through midweek as high pressure rebuilds aloft. A weak low pressure trough develops over the West later in the week, for cooler weather, more low clouds, and a deeper marine layer.
